THE LISTENING / READING SCRIPT

From: <http://www.businessenglishmaterials.com/kraft.html>

Kraft Foods, Inc. is the world's second largest confectionery, food, and drinks company (after Nestlé). It has dozens of household-name brands which it markets in more than 155 countries. It was founded by James L. Kraft in 1903. He started a door-to-door cheese business. Kraft had a very shaky start but by 1914 he was selling thirty-one varieties of cheese across the U.S.A. and had opened his own cheese factory. In 1915, the company invented processed cheese that did not need refrigeration. The U.S. Army bought millions of kilograms for soldiers' rations during World War I. Today the company owns brands such as Cadbury, Philadelphia cheese, Vegemite, and Nabisco. Twelve of these brands each generate over $1 billion. Around 30% of revenues come from confectionary and 14% from cheese.

WARM UPS

From: <http://www.businessenglishmaterials.com/kraft.html>

1. BRAINSTORM CHAT: Write all the words you can think of about Kraft on the board or on a piece of paper. Talk about these words with your partner(s).

2. KRAFT MORNING: Each student pretends to be an employee of Kraft. They walk around the class and talk about the company and their job.

3. RUMOURS: Each student writes down a pretend rumour about Kraft. They then walk around the class and talk to other students about their rumour.

4. GOOD AND BAD: Brainstorm good and bad things about Kraft and write them on the board. Students talk about these in pairs.

5. TRUE OR FALSE: Students find out several facts about Kraft. They write these down and add the same number of things about the company that are false. Students test each other on which of their points are true or false.

6. FACTS: In groups, students write down as many facts as they can about Kraft. The winner is the group with the most facts. Teacher may wish to have groups share their facts to make sure they are real.

KRAFT – ROLE PLAY 1

From: <http://www.businessenglishmaterials.com/kraft.html>

Role A – Kraft CEO

You believe your company is the best in the world. It pays its workers very well and working conditions are great. Your company is very green – it cares about the environment. You think your levels of customer service are great. Disagree with person B, C and D.

Role B – Kraft worker

You think it's a bad company to work for. You're very unhappy with pay, raises and bonuses. You are very unhappy with the working environment. You don't like the company's policy on the environment. You keep hearing profits are more important than customers. Disagree with A and C. Tell D the truth.

Role C – Kraft customer

You are a customer of Kraft. You used to think it was great, but not now. Its workers are always very rude. No one ever answers the phone. You are shocked about its policy on the environment. You think all staff should get less pay. You disagree with person A and B. Tell D the truth.

Role D – A journalist

You keep hearing bad things about Kraft. You want to tell the world in your newspaper. You heard the CEO gets a huge bonus every year. You found a company memo saying profits are more important than the environment. You want to know why so many staff are ill. Find the truth.

KRAFT – ROLE PLAY 2

From: <http://www.businessenglishmaterials.com/kraft.html>

Role A – Kraft New Products Director

You have created a new product for Kraft. You believe the new product will be the company's best ever. It will be a bestseller. There are people who do not agree with you. You need B, C and D on your side. Tell them why this is a product that will bring great things to Kraft.

Role B – Kraft Marketing Director

You think the company's new product is a really bad idea. It will give your company a really bad name. You think the New Products Director is trying to destroy the company. Try to get him/her to understand there's no way the new product will sell. Try to get person C and D on your side.

Role C – Kraft Market Researcher

You have interviewed thousands of people about the new product. They don't like it or hate it. You think it will be successful if they make many changes. Tell the New Products Director he/she needs to change the product. You neither like nor trust person B. Disagree with him/her.

Role D – Kraft Shareholder

You know a lot about Kraft's new product. You are worried it will not sell and share prices will go down. You think A is crazy and must find a new job. You agree with everything B says. You don't agree with C. The new product should not go on the market.
